H LRP:

"The whole family helped out Nettie and Jennie, neither of whom ever worked a day in their whole life. Spencer gave them a pint of cream and milk every other day. Charlie Snyder would take them a basket of apples. Pop, of course, made sure that they had potatoes, onion and eggs. They sold eggs for Pop. People came to 35 River Street and bought eggs. Spencer also gave them money. Marguerite Doud would always take over
